Important to Holders of Government Bonds.

The recent robberles of large amounts of Government coupon bonds make it all imrortant that the public should understand the only secure way of holding Government securities is by having them properly registered, since, in case of loss, that't or destruction, the invester is still safe, as the Government will continue to pay the interest and will issue a new bond at the proper time. With regard to the coupon bond it is, however, entirely different, as it is a total loss to the owner in case it is stolen. lost or destroyed, it being regarded by the Government the same as a bank note. Some parties have the impression that registered bonds are more troublesome and the interest | Dodge presiding. more difficult to collect. This is an error. The interest on registered bonds can be made payable at any of the principal cities in the Union, and collected without regard to the locality of the owner, and the bonds can be transferred the same as coupon bonds. by signing in blank before any notary or

Romance in Real Life.

An lows paper of a recent date gives log young girl that lived near him. After day, the marriage time passed on, and soon the farmer contracted a taste for Honor, which frequently gained the better of him. His wife remonstrated with him, which on one occasion ended by the husband stabbing her with a butcher-knife. He left precipitately, supposing he had killed her, and hid himsalf in the West, where in a few years he became a prosperous and wealthy merchant-The wife in the meantime recovered, and after living alone for five years, married Lockey, Edward Nicol, John Sallivan, and again. Her husband died at the expiration Jacob Koeppel, were fixed from five to ten of a year, and she also went to the West. Then the incredible part of the story appeared. The parties met after their long separation, and became acquainted, but neither recognized the other. An engagement was entered into, resulting in marriage and, upon the wife disrobing in the evening. Science,-Dr. Richard P. Jones, agent for French's circus, and at the time connected with Dan Rice, at Girard, committed suicide in Buffalo the other day by taking laudanum. The Express says be entered a drug store on Main street and asked for an onnce of laudanum, saying that he had been afflicted all night with neuralgia so that he could not sleep. The young man in attendance gave him twenty live cents worth, and Jones went out, saying "good morning."-As toon as he regained the sidewalk, officer Collins, who happened to be near the spot. saw Jones place a small bottle to his lips twice, but did not suspect his design, -Shortly afterward officer Keen met Jones on the cerner of Carroll and Washington ats., lace is to be extended on the east end to and at first thought from his action that he was suffering from the effects of liquor .-Jones told Keen where he boarded, and when asked if he could go home alone, said "no," and then fell down in a state of insensibility. The officer produced a cart and carried him to the station house, and called Dr. Johnson to attend him, but he was past human aid, and died about six o'clock --The cause of the fuelish conduct of Jones is sald to have been domestic difficulty. It being reported that his wife had deserted him. taking with her his only child. On Wednesday he showed a telegram saying, "she liquor.
